Relational Resources

66		The little book of Restorative Discipline for Schools Offer applications and models. Among them are class meetings; reintegration; circle processes and tensions that are building; and community conferencing when trouble shapes up between students and neighbors.
67		The little book of Circle Processes Provide support for those harmed by crime and to decide sentences for those who commit crime, in schools to create positive classroom climates and resolve behaviours problems, in the workplace to deal with conflict, and in social services to develop more organic support systems for people struggling to get their lives together.
119		The Little Book of Restorative Justice for People in Prison Prisoners are often regarded as a thrown-away population. While the criminal justice system focuses on giving offenders "what they deserve," it does little to explore or restore the needs or factors that lead to crime. Restorative justice, with its emphasis on identifying the justice needs of everyone involved in a crime, is helping restore prisoners' sense of humanity while holding them accountable for their actions.
111		The Circle Time Games and Activities Book The kit includes a booklet full of ideas, activities and games, plus a set of B & W image cards, feelings cards and character cards. Includes an explanation of Circle Time along with a host of ideas, activities and games suitable for multiple age groups. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Image Cards - for imaginative activities like storytelling and discussion• Feelings Cards - for building an emotional vocabulary and learning to read faces and body language• Character Cards - for identifying positive traits in self, friends and relationships
