Education

Course Outline:

Restorative Practices (RP) promotes positive relationships in a school environment. The practice builds healthy communities, increases social capital, decreases antisocial behavior, repairs harm and restores relationships.

Participants will be guided through an examination of how RP promotes moral development, positive brain chemistry, oral language competencies and social regulation through Positive Education and Positive Psychology. Further, the latest research on neuroscience in the area of life span development, neurogenesis and biological and social management of our emotions will be explored.

Learning Outcomes:

- RP Philosophy, Values and Principles;
- Research on neuroscience towards Restorative Practices;
- Positive Education and Positive Psychology;
- Learning and Developing Discipline approaches with less reliance on punishment;
- Addressing and Responding to disengaged behaviors (anti social and absenteeism);
- Ways to establish Positive Teacher-Student Relationships (TSR);
- Sustaining and Strengthening respectful Relationships within the Classroom and School.

Who should attend?

- School Leaders/ Year Heads/ DMs/Pastoral Care Heads
- Discipline Committee Members / School Teachers /Counsellors

About Restorative Practices Singapore

RPSingapore is a – Social Enterprise dedicated to the Restorative Movement in Singapore. We play an integral role in promoting Restorative Practices (RP) in Singapore school having trained over 300 schools in the past 13 years. As part of our continuing effort, we are pleased to bring back the pioneer of RP to conduct the popular 1.5 days RP training. We adopt an Eclectic Approach to Restorative Practices where we integrate Restorative Practices with the best practices in Positive Psychology, Positive Education, Neuro Linguistic Programming (NLP), Growth Mindset and others. Our programmes/trainings are based on the latest research on neuroscience and we differentiate ourselves in being Singapore centric.

Testimonials from past participants

David is an engaging trainer brimming with experience. He is able to address our questions and concerns.
Head Of Department, Primary School

What a wonderful training! Change the way I view discipline.

Secondary School Teacher

The training by RP Singapore is different. They were able to help us infuse RP into our current school system. The "Eclectic" approach is very helpful as every school is different.
